

HERE'S THE PLATFORM

On Which True Democracy Will Make Its Fight---It Will Be Adopted Today.

FEDERAL-INTERFERENCE UNCONSTITUTIONAL.—We denounce arbitrary interference by federal authorities in local affairs as a violation of the constitution of the United States and a crime against free institutions, and we especially object to government by injunction as a new and doubly dangerous form of oppression by which federal judges, in contempt of the laws of the States and rights of citizens, become at once legislators, judges and executioners.

There will be no bolt, and notwithstanding the heavy strain of the day there is a better feeling all along the line tonight than there has been for two days. Tomorrow will be an eventful day, for it will make the platform and it may give the party its candidates.

CLARK HOWELL

"It is this way," Mr. Mullinax chirped contentfully, "Fennoyer is the man. His name is a combination of a couple of terms over here, derived from oyez, to hear. Fenno is an old Chapultepec word for man. Now observe-do you follow?—Fennoyer; dissected, it reads here is the man. I tell you it is prophetic. There you are again.rophe and Fenno, the rhyme, the alliteration. He is for woman's suffrage in every state where the men are the majority. Fennoyer, sir, is perfect."

And Mr. Mullinax, convinced that he had detected corruptions, marched on to new readings.

Of Who Will Carry the Democratic Banner—The Platform To Be Presented This Morning.

The convention may end its labors tomorrow night. If not, it will be Saturday before a nomination can be made.

When the Committee on Resolutions

Reports He Will Talk.
Convention Hall, Chicago, July 8.—When the report of the committee on resolutions is made to the convention a minority report will be also presented indorsing the financial policy of the Cleveland administration. To that Senator Tillman will offer an amendment and address the convention upon it for fifty minutes. Senator Till-man's amendment is in these words: "We denounce the administration of Andrew Johnson as a tyrannical and despotic government, and a departure from those principles which are cherished by all liberty loving Americans. We demand that the President should thwart the will of the people as expressed by their representatives in congress. The appointive power has been placed in the hands of a few men, who have sought to overawe and control citizens in the free exercise of their constitutional rights. We demand that the President should thus sought to be established on the ruins of the republic. We repudiate the construction of the constitution which has been made by the democratic national platform by President Johnson, and we demand that the President should refrain from any arbitrary to plain meaning of English words and as being an act of bad faith deserving of the severest reprobation. We demand in time of peace with which to buy gold and silver, and we demand that the President should refrain from the use of gold or that the option of the government and the use of the proceeds to defray the cost of the war. We demand that the President should refrain from the use of both unlawful and usurpations of authority."

and we approve the bill passed at the last session of the United States senate and now pending in the house of representatives, relative to contempt in federal courts, and providing trials by jury in certain cases of contempt.

No discrimination should be indulged by the government of the United States in favor of its debtors. We approve the refusal of the fifty-third congress to pass the Pacific railroad funding bill and denounce the efforts of the present republican congress to enact a similar measure.

AS TO PENSIONS—Recognizing the just claims of deserving union soldiers, we heartily indorse the rule of the present commissioner of pensions, that no names shall be arbitrarily dropped from the pension roll and the fact of enlistment and service should be deemed conclusive evidence against disease and disability before enlistment.

NEW STATES—We favor the admission of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona into the union as states, and we favor the early admission of all the territories having the necessary population and resources to entitle them to statehood, and while they remain territories we hold that the officials, appointed to administer the government of any territory, together with the District of Columbia and Alaska, should be bona fide residents of the territory or district in which their duties are to be performed.

The democratic party believes in home rule, and that all public lands of the United States should be appropriated to the establishment of free homes for American citizens.

We recommend that the territory of Alaska be granted a delegate in congress, and that the general land and timber laws of the United States be extended to said territory.

SYMPATHY FOR CUBA—We extend our sympathy to the people of Cuba in their heroic struggle for liberty and independence.

TENURE OF OFFICE—We are opposed to life tenure in the public service. We favor appointments based upon merit, fixed terms of office and such an administration of the civil service laws as will afford equal opportunities to all citizens of ascertained fitness.

We declare it to be the unwritten law of this republic, established by custom and usage of one hundred years and sanctioned by the examples of the greatest and wisest of those who founded and have maintained our government, that no man should be eligible for a third term for the presidential office.

IMPROVE WATERWAYS—The federal government should care for and improve the Mississippi river and other great waterways of the republic so as to secure for the interior states cheap and easy transportation to tidewater. When any waterway of the republic is of sufficient importance to need aid from the government, such aid should be extended upon a definite plan of continuous work until permanent improvement is secured.

SUBMITTED—Confiding in the justice of our cause and the necessity of its success at the polls, we submit the foregoing declaration of principles and purposes to the considerate judgment of the American people. We invite the support of all citizens who approve them and who desire to have them made effective through legislation for the relief of the people and the restoration of the country's prosperity.

GEORGIA FOR SILVER DICK

Her Twenty-Six Votes Will Be Cast for Bland

ON THE FIRST BALLOT TODAY

But After That It Is Not Known Where They Will Go

ALABAMA STICKS TO BOIES

Mr. Tomlinson Denies the Story That the Delegation Will Vote for Bland.

THE BRYAN BOOM IS STILL IN SIGHT

The Nebraska Has Many Friends and They Are Hard at Work for Him.

Chicago, July 8.—(Special.)—Georgia made up her mind in the presidential race today and walked into the noisy camp of Mr. Bland.

One ballot of the delegation settled it. Two candidates were voted for—Boies and Bland. The vote stood 7 for the former to 17 for the latter.

Everybody was late getting breakfast in Chicago this morning and the Georgia meeting was an hour late. These conventions make people lead fast lives and the Georgians were up listening to bands as late as 2 o'clock this morning.

The meeting was held at the Coliseum at

"DOC" FINLEY OF OHIO. He Believes the Convention Would Nominate John McLean.

10 o'clock. The secretary took the ballot. One of the members were absent, but a full vote was cast.

Georgia's action is binding only for the first ballot. After that another caucus will be held. Georgia may try Boies after a few ballots, or she may continue to vote for Bland. But Georgia is not so strongly for Bland that she won't break away from him to go to Boies or some other good man.

The Georgia delegates are not mullah in their preferences and they want to see the convention settle upon some good man and name him, and she will fall quickly into line.

Alabamians Deny the Story. The Alabama delegates are much perturbed tonight over a story in one of the afternoon papers which says that they will bolt Boies for Bland after the first ballot. John W. Tomlinson, one of the leaders of the Alabamians, denies the story emphatically. He says Boies is Alabama's first choice and she will do her best to nominate him.

Tennessee has gone to Bland and it was said this afternoon that North Carolina would give her vote to ex-Governor Clark. Kentucky goes for Blackburn, and South Carolina for Teller.

So it will be seen that the south is not a unit in the choice for president. There is much talk of Stevenson tonight. It is said that the Illinois delegation will break away from the rule of Altgeld and vote for him after voting two or three times for Bland. I can't believe they will break from Altgeld, but it is possible that they will quit Bland after a few ballots. Illinois, with her 48 votes, is a power in the convention and the candidates know their value in this contest. Once they break from Bland, his cause is hopeless.

Kohlsaat Is Talking. Mr. H. H. Kohlsaat, the astute editor and one of the best informed men on Illinois politics, believes that Illinois will put up Stevenson after doing her duty by Bland. He sat in the press section this afternoon and talked comprehensively of the situation.

"It will be either Stevenson or Teller," he said. "I see no chance for Bland or Boies. Bland will have a strong lead on the first ballot, but after that much of it will stampede to other candidates. I believe Illinois will put Stevenson in the race. If she does she will nominate him."

Mr. Kohlsaat can hardly hope this, however. He and Mark Hanna nominated McKinley, you remember, and he wants to put Illinois in the republican column.

The Bryan boom which flashed forth last night may amount to something. It was born anew, amid the uncertainty between Boies and Bland night before last. A Bryan club was formed, a fine banner was painted during the night and a band was hired. With shouts and confident tread the club marched into the hall this morning. The club got gratifying applause. It has been making noise all day. Bryan developed as a leader of the convention today. Yesterday he was kept busy by the contests from his state, but today he is Senator Jones's chief lieutenant. There is hope and life in the Bryan boom, if not triumph.

BAILEY OBJECTS

To a Paragraph in the Platform as Drafted.

Chicago, July 8.—(Special.)—The platform committee meets tomorrow morning before the convention to settle a dispute between silver men.

Mr. Bailey, of Texas, has objected to the last paragraph of the financial plank, which reads: "Congress alone has the power to coin and issue money and President Jackson declared that this power could not be delegated to corporations or individuals. We, therefore, demand that the power to issue notes to circulate money be taken from the national banks and that all paper money shall be issued directly by the treasury department."

Mr. Bailey objects to this on the ground that it misstates Jackson's position, and, further, that this declaration is not democratic but populist. He will endeavor to have the committee strike it out. He gave Senator Jones notice tonight if the committee refused to strike it out, he would feel compelled to make a fight against it on the floor of the convention.

HON. JOE SIBLEY. The Pennsylvania Ex-Congressman Who is Famous as a Silver Champion and Who May Develop into a Presidential Possibility.

Mr. Bailey further opposes this paragraph because it is an implied declaration against the repeal of the state bank tax.

To the resolutions committee tonight Mr. Bailey has presented this paragraph as a substitute for the one he declares against as populist:

"Congress alone has the power to coin or issue money and this power cannot be delegated to corporations or individuals."

DAVENPORT'S IDEA OF HILL. The New York Journal Artist Must Have Caught Him in a Sad Moment.

We, therefore, denounce the issuance of notes intended to circulate as money by national banks as in derogation of the constitution, and we demand that all paper which is made a legal tender for public and private debt or made receivable in due to the United States shall be issued by the government of the United States."

Up to date the repeal of the state bank tax gets no place in the platform. There is opposition to such a declaration, and it will probably be shut out. The truth of the matter is, a western populist sentiment of strong proportion has gotten into the platform. That will probably be largely stricken out tomorrow, but it is not thought probable that a straight declaration for the repeal of the state bank tax will be put in.

Over the platform tomorrow a vigorous fight is promised. As it was reported today by the committee it is not satisfactory to many of the delegations. The silver men will, perhaps, settle their differences in committee. If they do not there will be a division in the convention among the silver men, Senator Tillman on one side and Mr. Bailey on the other. Every effort will, however, be made to settle this outside, for the silver men will have their hands full in the debate with the gold men over it tomorrow.

Senator Hill will lead the fight against the platform for the gold men.

TILLMAN AND HILL WANTED TO SPEAK

PERMANENT CHAIRMAN WHITE.

The California Senator Was Given a Great Ovation Upon Taking the Gavel.

Senators Hill and Tillman were ready to march upon the platform for the greatest speeches of the convention, but the exciting Michigan contest had been prolonged until too late. Some of the expected had to go over until tomorrow.

From the standpoint of spectacle, oratory and noise today's steady stream of eloquence flooded the hall all day and exciting scenes were constantly being enacted.

The platform and credentials committees were not ready to report this morning and

You wouldn't think much of a man who remained quiet when he had a knife in his hands, would you? He would be foolish to remain helpless when the lightest effort would free him. A man is made helpless and useless by other things besides ropes. Constipation will make a man helpless. His muscles and brain are so weighed down with impure, poisonous matter, use him as he would a piece of lead. He is able to perform to make a good quality. Constipation makes a man sluggish and heavy. It gives him a headache, most likely. His "brain doesn't work." He has a bad taste in his mouth, a foul breath, and he "feels bad" all over. Constipation causes nine-tenths of all human sickness. It is the cause of sick and bilious headaches, of biliousness, sour stomach, heart burn, palpitation of the heart, pimples, blotches, indigestion and dyspepsia. It can be cured just as easily as a rope made of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will do it. They will do it without producing any harmful effect on the rest of the system. They are not violent in their action. They merely assist Nature. They will restore the healthy, natural action of the digestive organs. You don't become a slave to their use. You stay cured when you are cured. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative; two a mild cathartic. Get them at druggists. Nothing else is "just as good."

HEALTH FOR NOTHING.—If you knew more about your body and its needs you would be sick less often and less seriously. You may have this knowledge free. If you will send 21 one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, we will send you post-paid, a paper-bound copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This 400-page, illustrated, medical work contains more information about the human body in health and disease than any other medical book printed in the English language. schedule this morning. They put in appearance about 11 o'clock and Chairman Daniel was late in calling the convention to order. The morning session's conspicuous features were the speeches of Joe Blackburn and Governor John Altgeld. They stirred the convention as it has never been stirred before.

One of the Incidents. The seating of the Nebraska delegation, with the brilliant Bryan at its head, and the dramatic entry of the victorious delegates, was one of the impressive incidents of the morning.

Hogg, of Texas, tremendous in size and with the voice of a lion, helped kill time during the morning with a standard silver speech. Hogg thundered it out in governor, when the Nebraska fight came on, but he quickly withdrew a motion that he had made which would have precipitated a fight.

The Michigan fight in the afternoon was intense. The division of the silver delegates opposing the report unseating the gold delegates. There was a long assault of oratory, which seemed endless. Senator Jones asserted his leadership and brought it to an end.

Two scenes of indescribable confusion and noise marked the progress of the vote on the contest. The first was made by the gold men when New York cast her seventy-two votes against the report. It lasted fifteen minutes and the screaming and beating upon the floor was terrific. It seemed as if order would never be restored.

A scene exceeding this in the intensity of its enthusiasm followed the announcement of the vote. Every silver delegate was in his chair waving and yelling. The chairman was helpless to restore order.

As to the Platform. The convention expected the debate on the platform. Tonight it was on the programme. It was scheduled to last two hours and a half, the time to be divided between the gold and silver men. Senator delay was that they were then in caucus on the momentous question whether or not they should attend any more sessions.

Called To Order.
At a few minutes before 11 o'clock the temporary chairman called the convention to order and announced that its proceedings would be opened with prayer by Rev. Thomas Edward Green, rector of Grace church.

WASH HESING'S WHISKERS
The Chicago Postmaster Says "Mr. and Mrs. Whitney are Out of It."

Coloquial church, of Cedar Rapids, Ia. At this time the section of the New York delegation was still unoccupied. The prayer called for a special "blessing on the convention gathered from all over our fair land," and asked that the minds of the delegates should be "dominated for good, for humanity and for God," and that what they did might "tell in the years to come for the advancement and lifting up of our human kin."

The temporary chairman announced that the first business in order was the report of committees, as no business could be done except by unanimous consent until the committees reported. He called the first committee in order—the committee on credentials—and there was no response, and after an interval of about ten minutes it was announced that the committee on credentials was about to reassemble after its long night's session.

Gov. Hogg Addresses the Convention.
At 11:22 o'clock ex-Senator Martin, of Kansas, was recognized, and moved that informal recess of five minutes to permit Governor Hogg, of Texas, to address the convention. The motion was adopted, but a stray hand in the gallery beyond the reach of the chairman's bell, not hearing the signals, kept playing "Dixie" for nearly ten minutes before it could be stopped and the governor given a chance. Governor Hogg's "five minutes" were stretched into half an hour, but still there were no tidings from the committee on credentials, and amid vociferous cries for "Hill," who was not present, the chairman recognized Senator-elect Money, of Mississippi, who moved that Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, be invited to the stand. Mr. Blackburn, the first pronounced candidate to be heard, was received with tumultuous applause. As Senator Blackburn sat down, more cries were raised for Hill, without response.

A motion to adjourn for half an hour was voted down, and the band was started up to drown the confusion which prevailed.

Anxious To Hear Altgeld.
Mr. Henry, of Illinois, was then called for, and rising in the body of the hall, indicated a desire to give way to Senator Hill.

THE TWO SINGLE TAXERS.
The Tall One Is Congressman Tom Johnson—The Other Is Henry George.

Senator Hill. The chair stated that Governor Hill was engaged with the committee on resolutions. Governor David Overmeyer, of Kansas, took the stand and declared that yesterday the seat of the empire was transferred from the Atlantic states to the Mississippi valley. The day of the common people had dawned, and the "dollar of our daddies" would be restored to the people. He was received with unbounded enthusiasm. The band once more filled up the interlude to kill time.

Governor Altgeld was again called in requisition as a stop-gap. His swarthy visage, as it appeared alongside the chairman, was greeted with cheers, to which he responded by saying he did not come here to make a speech, but to assist in nominating a president and preparing a platform which should bring hope to the people. He proceeded to discuss the cause of the existing conditions of distress which he summarized as the combined action of the moneyed interests of the world to make money dear and property and labor cheap.

Partial Report on Credentials.
At this point—1 o'clock p. m.—the chair announced a partial report of the committee on credentials, recommending that each of the territories and the District of Columbia be granted statehood. Second, after careful comparison of the credentials as returned by the national committee, they found all of them correct, except those from the states of Nebraska and Michigan. In regard to Nebraska they were pleased to report that the delegates headed by Hon. W. J. Bryan should be admitted to seats. In regard to Michigan they asked further time.

The motion to adopt the report was declared carried by a viva voce vote, a demand for a roll call, which was at first

He proceeded to discuss the cause of the existing conditions of distress which he summarized as the combined action of the moneyed interests of the world to make money dear and property and labor cheap.

The temporary chairman announced that the first business in order was the report of committees, as no business could be done except by unanimous consent until the committees reported. He called the first committee in order—the committee on credentials—and there was no response, and after an interval of about ten minutes it was announced that the committee on credentials was about to reassemble after its long night's session.

Gov. Hogg Addresses the Convention.
At 11:22 o'clock ex-Senator Martin, of Kansas, was recognized, and moved that informal recess of five minutes to permit Governor Hogg, of Texas, to address the convention. The motion was adopted, but a stray hand in the gallery beyond the reach of the chairman's bell, not hearing the signals, kept playing "Dixie" for nearly ten minutes before it could be stopped and the governor given a chance. Governor Hogg's "five minutes" were stretched into half an hour, but still there were no tidings from the committee on credentials, and amid vociferous cries for "Hill," who was not present, the chairman recognized Senator-elect Money, of Mississippi, who moved that Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, be invited to the stand. Mr. Blackburn, the first pronounced candidate to be heard, was received with tumultuous applause. As Senator Blackburn sat down, more cries were raised for Hill, without response.

A motion to adjourn for half an hour was voted down, and the band was started up to drown the confusion which prevailed.

Anxious To Hear Altgeld.
Mr. Henry, of Illinois, was then called for, and rising in the body of the hall, indicated a desire to give way to Senator Hill.

Governor David Overmeyer, of Kansas, took the stand and declared that yesterday the seat of the empire was transferred from the Atlantic states to the Mississippi valley. The day of the common people had dawned, and the "dollar of our daddies" would be restored to the people. He was received with unbounded enthusiasm. The band once more filled up the interlude to kill time.

votes that are honest and fair, I do not want him nominated." (Cheers.)
"I do not expect to cast my vote to rob a state of the union of any vote to which it is justly entitled. The committee on credentials acted justly in reporting in favor of admitting the contestants from the fourth and ninth districts. You understand the question. Vote for the majority report and you will do what is right."

"BILL" RUSSELL OF MASS.
He Believes the Center of the Universe is at Buzzard's Bay.

Mr. McKnight, of Michigan, also a member of the committee on credentials, asked the support not only of the silver men, but of the entire convention in support of the report of the majority. The gentlemen of the committee, he said, had given this case careful consideration and they were here to testify to some and only some of the outrages perpetrated on the democrats of Michigan. He asserted that the state of Michigan elected a majority of 200 to their convention in favor of silver, and when the administration in Washington found this out Mr. Stevenson was sent to Washington to upset the will of the people.

"There is not one word of truth in all that," said Mr. Richardson, from his seat. As Mr. McKnight proceeded further with his statement of alleged facts, Mr. Weadock, one of the delegates-at-large, seated in the front row immediately facing the speaker, said in an audible voice: "That's a lie." No notice was taken of this interruption.

Mr. McKnight closed by saying that if the majority report were accepted the democrats would carry Michigan by at least 25,000 majority.
Mr. Brucker, of Michigan, declared that he had always been a free silver man and that there were enough silver delegates in the convention to nominate a president by a two-thirds majority without the necessity of committing highway robbery. (Applause and laughter.)

Would Be a Mistake, Says Thomas.
Mr. C. S. Thomas, of Colorado, a member of the national committee, next took the stand, but the audience was becoming impatient, and raised loud cries of "Vote." He held it would be a mistake to elect a their faces to the immense crowds in the galleries, waved hats and handkerchiefs, and stood on their chairs and gesticulated. The galleries, evidently strongly anti-silver in sentiment, were not slow to respond and an unearthly sound from 15,000 throats filled even the vast space of the great hall. The Tammany yell was plainly heard in every temporary lull. The band tried in vain to compete with the babel of notes. Every rap of the chairman's gavel also seemed to start it again as it began to quiet down. Shouts for Hill, yodel calls and shrill whistles added to the confusion. Then the silver men began to hiss and stamp their feet and this made matters infinitely worse. Senator Daniel's powerful voice, much worn with its service yesterday, called the next state, "North Carolina."

"North Carolina declines to vote till she can be heard," replied the chairman of the delegation.
State Chairman Hinckley, ex-Mayor Hugh Grant and other prominent New Yorkers vainly tried to stop the demonstration. It went on uninterrupted for fifteen minutes and was barely stifled when the roll was resumed. When Pennsylvania was reached and Chairman Harris called on the state, said: "Pennsylvania casts her sixty-four votes away," an attempt was made to renew the demonstration, but it died away in a few seconds, spectators and delegates being almost tired out.

The Silver Men's Time.
The vote resulted in the rejection of the minority report, yeas 29, nays 558, absent 4. "The noes have it," said the chairman, "and the amendment is lost." It was now the silver men's turn. They called and waved hats and handkerchiefs and displayed Bland pictures and made the night hideous for nearly as long as the gold men the galleries impatiently assisting.

During the jubilation by the silver men, two stout Kentucky delegates danced a break-down in the aisle at the rear of the delegates' section, several others "patting time," as the southern phrase is, amid the wildest laughter.

How the Vote Was Cast.
The official detailed vote by states was as follows:
Alabama, nays, 22; Arkansas, nays, 16; California, aye, 11; nays, 6; absent, 1; Colorado, aye, 4; nays, 4; Connecticut, aye, 12; Delaware, aye, 6; Florida, nays, 8; Georgia, nays, 26; Idaho, nays, 6; Illinois, nays, 48; Indiana, aye, 8; nays, 22; Iowa, nays, 26; Kansas, nays, 20; Kentucky, nays, 25; Louisiana, by a sovereign state to sit in a democratic national convention." (Cheers.)

The convention, he added, had no right to sit as a committee on credentials on a state convention. It may answer its purpose now, but it would be making a precedent which will return to damn you some day. (Cheers.) The only safe democratic doctrine is to stand by precedents and to seats the delegates who held the only doctrine that have been issued from those districts."

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Sheehan, a member of the national committee, made a statement to prove the impartiality of that committee in its position on the various contested election cases and argued in opposition to the majority report of the committee on credentials. Mr. Sheehan referred to the fact that a poll of the committee was taken by voting to show 15 for gold and 13 for silver, and he disclosed the secrets of the committee room by saying that at first the majority of the committee favored seating all four of the delegates-at-large. But wiser counsels prevailed and the delegates-at-large were retained. But the honest delegates had been unseated and what was the purpose? To make the delegation 15 silver, 13 gold, and thus open the way to the overthrow of the time-honored doctrine of the two-thirds rule.

Mr. Blake, of Texas, a member of the committee on credentials argued in favor of the majority report. He said that on principle he was opposed to going behind the returns, but in this case the evidence was abundant that the state convention had been manipulated in the gold interest and the will of the people slighted. In his judgment the whole infernal delegation from Michigan ought to be turned out. He believed that the four delegates-at-large were not entitled to seats, but in the spirit of compromise he did not wish to go so far.

Honest Votes or None.
"If we," he said, "cannot nominate our man for president on a silver platform by a democratic president by overturning the expressed will of a sovereign state. He warned them that they could not afford to strike down the state of Michigan simply for the purpose of obtaining a two-thirds majority."

Mr. Powers, of Utah, a member of the committee on credentials, argued in support of the majority report. State Senator Thomas Grady, of New York, spoke against the majority report.
The discussion was closed by two more speeches—one by Mr. Weadock, of Michigan, and the other by Mr. O'Donnell, of Colorado. Little or no attention, however, was paid to these speeches, as the crowd in the galleries was quite turbulent and cheering broke over the assembly. The galleries, as well as the spectators in the galleries, was in a hurry to come to a vote, and Mr. O'Donnell assailed that view by moving the previous question on the report. The previous question was seconded.

The vote was then taken on the minority substitute of the credentials committee, which retains the sitting (gold) members from the fourth and ninth Michigan districts in their seats.

A Golden Demonstration.
When New York's seventy-two votes were announced, in favor of the minority report, a tumultuous wave of cheering broke over the assembly. The first efforts of the chairman to repress the manifestation by the use of his gavel were met by a counter-demonstration on the part of the gold delegates, who, rising and turning their backs to the chairman and their faces to the immense crowds in the galleries, waved hats and handkerchiefs, and stood on their chairs and gesticulated. The galleries, evidently strongly anti-silver in sentiment, were not slow to respond and an unearthly sound from 15,000 throats filled even the vast space of the great hall. When Pennsylvania was reached and Chairman Harris called on the state, said: "Pennsylvania casts her sixty-four votes away," an attempt was made to renew the demonstration, but it died away in a few seconds, spectators and delegates being almost tired out.

Permanent Organization Report.
The report of the committee on permanent organization was then presented by Mr. Finley, of Ohio, naming Senator White of California, as permanent president of the convention, and Thomas J. Cogan, of Ohio, as permanent secretary. A question was put to Mr. Finley as to whether the state of Michigan had a representative in the national committee as reported and was answered in the affirmative. A Atlanta, Thursday, July 9, 1896.

Rain, rain, rain, rain. A regular London drip and drizzle—minus the fog—with now and then a genuine tropical down-pour.

Good for the ground and all the growing green things: bad for business. The effect of continuous rain here in Atlanta is to make retail trade absolutely cease. However, quite a number of smart women took advantage of the quiet time in the store to visit it, and examine the great offerings that make our peremptory pre-inventory sale so notable. They were wise to come. There were no crowds to elbow or jostle them as they shopped.

The bargain merchandise was easy to see and choose. Selections were made leisurely, and better satisfaction secured than if one of our intense and impetuous rushes had prevailed. Of course, the wet weather injured the progress of our great sale, and dwarfed the volume of business so confidently anticipated. But we are not on record as complaining. Thirty years of retailing experience teaches us that disappointments confront us when they are least expected. The elements conspired to dampen the ardor of mid-summer buyers. We did our part well—made no mistakes.

It may interest you to know that nearly all the attractive items advertised in last Sunday's paper are still here. That's due to the rain. Had the weather remained fair there would have been a clean sweep. It will pay you to refer to our announcement in Sunday's Constitution. Look it over and compare it with other dry goods advertisements.

The comparison will fix beyond dispute or cavil who sells cheapest. One firm in conspicuous black type tells you that they will sell Printed French Organdie at 33c. Our advertisement contained the following:

Printed French Organdie—the best grade ever sent from over-sea, delicate as a cobweb, most artistic and daintiest coloring and design, worth regularly 40c; our price now 30c.

Another firm with lurid flourish thought to stagger competition by saying that they would sell Jaconet Duchesse, Tulle Chateleine and Madras Cloth at 12½c. We quote again from our own advertisement in the same paper:

Nearly one hundred pieces—not remnants, but full bolts—pretty wash goods, including Tulle Chateleine, Madras, Jaconet Duchesse, Flared Dimities and Lawns, worth regularly 12½c and 15c; our price now 10c.

And so it goes all along the line. Two items are as good as twenty to prove our leadership. Get the paper and study the respective announcements. The character of our goods is too well established for any man to reflect upon their quality. We keep only the best and choicest in every department. You may buy here in perfect confidence. Stupendous Bargains today; crowds, too, if the sky is sunny.

Mr. Brennan, of Wisconsin, advocated the adoption of the minority report and said he feared the effect of the adoption of the majority report on the country. He entered into details of the facts involved in the contest and said the report in this case, if adopted, would establish the fact that a majority in the first flush of success might go into a sovereign state and upset the action of a legal convention. FROM HIGH ESTATE TO LOW DEGREE

Aldermen and Councilmen Tried in Police Court.

KISS AND MAKE UP CASE

Tolbert Proved the Burden-Bearer and Took All the Blame.

WHITE-WINGED PEACE PERCHED THERE

Large Crowd at the Trial and Much Fun Witnessed by Those Who Came.

It is only on rare occasions that Atlanta's city fathers are to be seen in the police court as prisoners, and by reason of that fact a big crowd was attracted to Judge Calhoun's hall yesterday afternoon to witness the trial of the aldermen and councilmen who engaged in a general fight Monday night.

Several hundred people crowded the courtroom and as the prosecution leaders in political and commercial circles lined up before the good-natured judge there was a ripple of laughter. It was a strange sight; five prominent city officials answering to the charge of disorderly conduct and violating the law some of them, perhaps, helped to make.

There was no fun at the trial, contrary to general expectation. It was conducted seriously and in the most dignified manner. It differed from the ordinary trial of any ordinary row in no particular. The prominent defendants and witnesses took the mark before Clerk Charles Wynne and swore that they would tell the truth just like any other man who would have done. Some of them swore as if they were accustomed to it.

Judge Calhoun Called the Roll.
When Judge Calhoun, a smile playing over his face and with an air of the consciousness that he had before him the most distinguished coterie of the season, looked at his big docket and called the names of the officials who fought for principle and because they were mad, there was not standing room in the big courtroom. The judge called out the following names and the gentlemen answered to them:

"J. G. Woodward."
"Here," responded the alderman as he walked up to the clerk's desk. He carried the same case which figured so prominently in the fight.
"Jeff Tolbert."
"Here, your honor," said the Deputy marshal as he walked forward with an indifferent air. He stated that he desired to plead guilty of the entire business, saying that he was at fault and caused all the trouble.

"Albert Howell," said the court.
Colonel Howell came into line and announced ready.
"W. R. Dimmock," called the court.

The alderman and councilmen appeared before the spectators and said that he was before the court.
"J. E. Maddox," came from the judge and the councilman appeared with a scar on his nose, which he afterwards explained came there during the fight.

The Trial Commenced.
"Gentlemen, you are charged with disorderly conduct. Are you guilty or not guilty?" asked Judge Calhoun.
"Not guilty, your honor," replied Alderman Dimmock, speaking for himself, presumably.

"I plead guilty," said Mr. Tolbert, standing in the row of defendants. These gentlemen had nothing to do with the fight. Alderman Woodward and myself were talking about his bill to abolish some of the city officers and I told him that he had gone back on me. I said nothing else to him and he struck at me. I don't blame him for it, because said sufficient to justify him in hitting me. I had no idea of causing any trouble and am sorry that I did. We have always been friendly. Colonel Howell, City Marshal, Mr. Phillips and Mr. Dimmock had nothing to do with the fight between Mr. Woodward and myself and they were engaged as peace-makers all the time through. I didn't see any gun, neither did I see Colonel Howell strike Mr. Maddox.

"I am not willing for Mr. Tolbert to assume the entire responsibility of the trouble," said Mr. Woodward. "There were others to blame and I want the whole thing brought out."
The court ordered the case to proceed and the story of the origin of the fight and the trial of the case was brought out. No new facts in the case were brought out by the witnesses' testimony. Mr. Charles Thompson, Alderman Dimmock, Alderman Woodward, Alderman Howell and Councilman Maddox told about the fight. Mr. Maddox was represented by his brother, Mr. C. Maddox, the attorney. Mr. Maddox, the attorney, made the point that Colonel Howell struck his brother in the face and he asked the court to bind Colonel Howell for assault and battery, but Judge Calhoun could not see it that way.

Was a Peacemaker.
Colonel Howell admitted that he struck Mr. Maddox, but said he did so at a time when Mr. Maddox had his arms about his neck or shoulder. The alderman said that he had no intention of entering the fight and only ran in the store to make peace. When he got in he thought Mr. Woodward, Mr. Dimmock and Mr. Phillips and he, of course, took their part. Judge Calhoun looked at the matter in that light and he decided to fine Tolbert and Colonel Howell $10 and cost each. The cases against Messrs. Dimmock, Maddox and Woodward were dismissed.

Judge Calhoun said that he could understand how the trouble arose after the council meeting. He had no idea that Colonel Howell intended to participate in the fight when he ran in the store, believing that he went in to act as peacemaker, but after getting among the fighting men he got mixed up in the trouble himself.

The Fighters Shook Hands.
Quite a number of officials and prominent citizens attended the trial. It created a good deal of interest and many went to the courtroom expecting to see further trouble, but in that they were disappointed. Mr. Tolbert and Mr. Woodward shook hands before the trial began and while talking about drawing his pistol Mr. Woodward looked at Colonel Howell and said: "I'm glad it didn't occur, Albert," meaning that he was glad his pistol was taken from him when it was.

Among those who attended the trial were Messrs. Charles Keith, W. D. Smith, Mark Tolbert, ex-Alderman Harrison, Councilman Culbreth, City Marshal Humphries and a number of other prominent city officials.

One Point in His Favor.
From The Columbus Ledger.
Whatever may be said of Adlai Stevenson after this election is ended, it cannot be that he talked himself to death.

MORRIS TALKS NOT.

DECLINES TO SAY WHETHER HE WAS PLEDGED.

Says That He Voted for Two Good Men.
Mr. Keith and Mr. Howell He Had Mr.
Morris's Promise.

The city hall officials and council members and others are not yet through talking about the action of Councilman Morris in voting against Mayor Kendrick and Mr. Keith at last Monday's council meeting. It is openly claimed and charged that Mr. Morris violated his pledge and his former friends are handling him with gloves off about his action. They say that he promised to vote for Mayor Kendrick and for Mr. Keith and when he failed to do so there was great indignation in the council.

Mr. Keith was asked if it was true that Mr. Morris had promised to vote for him. Mr. Keith was averse to discussing the matter and declined to say whether or not he had made such a promise. "Yes, Mr. Morris told me last Friday afternoon that he would vote for me. He said that the other side was moving heaven and earth to get him to change his vote for me not to worry; that he would keep his promise and vote for me. I did not see him again and didn't think it necessary after that."

The friends of Mr. Keith claim that Mr. Morris agreed to abstain from voting for Kendrick and for Major Kendrick. Mr. Morris was seen at his store and when asked the direct question if he had promised to vote for Mr. Keith and Major Kendrick, he said:

"I have nothing to say for publication about the matter. I voted for good men. I know I believe will work for the best interests of the city. Mr. Patterson has been in the city for many years and I know he is a good man for police commissioner."

The question was again put to the councilman to tell the truth about the charge that he had promised to vote for Mr. Keith and Major Kendrick. "It is not my business to tell the truth about the matter. I am not a politician. I am a citizen. I know he is a good man for police commissioner."

and Broad Sts. To Come Up.

The board of aldermen will meet in regular session this afternoon. Several matters of importance will be acted on.
The proposition to allow the Mutual Life Insurance Company to erect a building over the sidewalk at the junction of Peachtree and Broad streets will be acted on by the aldermen. The petition of the company was approved by the council, and if the same action is taken by the aldermanic board, the company will be allowed to erect the building.
A proposition to allow a discount of 1 per cent on all taxes paid up to $500 will be acted on by the aldermen. The proposition was introduced by Mr. J. G. Woodward.

GEN. YOUNG'S BODY ARRIVES TODAY

Washington Last Night.

REACHES ATLANTA AT NOON

Will Be Met by Confederate Veterans and Citizens.

FUNERAL AT CARTERSVILLE THIS AFTERNOON

A Special Train Will Leave Atlanta and Will Carry the Remains and Escort.

The remains of the late General Pierce M. B. Young will reach Atlanta today at noon.

The train bearing the remains left New York yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. It will be met at the depot by the veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy and a large escort will attend the funeral in Cartersville this afternoon.

A special train will leave over the West and Atlantic just after the New York train arrives in the city. This train will carry the remains to Cartersville and will return in the evening.

The arrangements for the funeral in Cartersville were made by the friends of the late General Young. The funeral will be held at noon tomorrow night and will be a grand affair. The remains will be carried to Cartersville by a special train and will be met by the veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy and a large escort will attend the funeral in Cartersville this afternoon.

As soon as this information was secured General Evans issued a call to the veterans and comrades of General Young to assemble at the carshed and meet the train. The body will be received by the detachment of veterans and will be escorted to Cartersville, where the funeral occurs this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The body will be made this morning with the officials of the Western and Atlantic for a special train to carry the remains to Cartersville. The train will leave at noon tomorrow night and will be met by the veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy and a large escort will attend the funeral in Cartersville this afternoon.

The proposition to allow the Mutual Life Insurance Company to erect a building over the sidewalk at the junction of Peachtree and Broad streets will be acted on by the aldermen. The petition of the company was approved by the council, and if the same action is taken by the aldermanic board, the company will be allowed to erect the building.

FAIR BUILDINGS MUST BE SOLD

The Heavy Rains Have Caused the Trustees To Take Prompt Action.

LONGER DELAY IS DANGEROUS

The Structures Will Be Sold as Soon as a Purchaser Can Be Found.

OTHER BUILDINGS MAY SUFFER DAMAGE

The Manufacturers Building May Be Totally Wrecked—No Date Yet
Fixed for the Sale.

The heavy rains have in a measure settled the fate of the exposition buildings and it is probable that the structures will be sold as wreckage just as soon as buyers can be found who will make the bid that is desired by the trustees of the company.

The damage resulting to the manufacturers and liberal arts building from Tuesday's rain will hardly be repaired, as there is no money with which the necessary work of effecting the repairs can be done. The trustees of the exposition buildings are now endeavoring to sell the buildings as soon as possible, as other damage may result in the near future.

Mr. George W. Parrott, trustee of the bondholders, reached the city yesterday from New York. The story of the wreckage of the manufacturers building as told by The Constitution was the first information Mr. Parrott had received. Later in the day he stated that he had been very busy engaged on other matters and had not been in the city but a few hours.

"I do not know just what will be done," said he, "but it seems as if it is now necessary that the buildings be sold as soon as possible."

Mr. C. A. Collier was also seen in regard to the sale of the exposition buildings, but he said he knew but little about the arrangements that had been made.

Mr. Parrott has been out of the city and I have not had an opportunity to talk with him," said Mr. Collier yesterday. "I am of the opinion that the buildings will be sold as soon as a purchaser can be found, for it begins to look as if the rains and weather will play havoc with the structures."

"We have done all we can, and now it is only a question of time as to the destruction of the buildings. The trustees will not wait until they are completely ruined, but they will sell them as soon as a purchaser can be found."

Are the Buildings in Danger?
The damage to the exposition buildings has caused much anxiety about the other buildings on the grounds.

"The damage is considerable to the buildings," said Mr. Larned yesterday, "and I do not suppose it will be repaired. I do not think the entire building will fall in, but then this cannot be told, as the part that has already fallen may weaken the trusses and cause the other support to give way precipitating the entire roof and walls."

The damage was not discovered until after the heavy rain of Tuesday night. The building appeared to have been struck by lightning and I got out to examine it. Then I discovered the ruin, and an examination was made of the building.

This building is one of the largest and most expensive on the grounds, costing about $25,000 and even at these figures the contractors lost money on the job. It was built very substantially and securely, and it has given way other buildings may do the same thing."

Mr. Larned is in the office with Mr. Parrott and is well acquainted with the situation at the grounds.

What of the Government Building?
The ownership of the government building seems to be in doubt.

In reading over the general deficiency bill while in Washington, Mr. Collier says he saw where the government building had been given to the city of Atlanta.

Mayor King knows nothing of the gift and has not been notified that a transfer of ownership has been made.

"The city did not officially ask for the building," said Mayor King yesterday.

"I know nothing whatever of the building," said Mayor King yesterday.

The building was secured, it is said, through a bill presented by Colonel Livingston and the building was given to the city of Atlanta by the Fifth regiment and their companies as an army. The property on which the building stands is owned by the Fifth regiment and the city of Atlanta.

and as the building was not constructed with a view to its ever being moved there seems to be an interesting question as to what disposal shall be made of it.

Brothers Fight.
Tweed, Ga., July 8.—(Special.)—John Graham and Scott Graham, brothers, became involved in an altercation Saturday. John is single, while the other is married. Scott was the aggressor and without any provocation he was the aggressor.

Martha, Ga., July 8.—(Special).—At the residence of the bride's father, Rev. J. A. Adkins, Mr. J. S. Stewart and Miss M. Adkins were happily united in marriage. Long before the hour of the ceremony the spacious house was thronged with guests and relatives of the contracting parties. When the nuptials were concluded the company enjoyed a sumptuous repast prepared by the bride's father. It was a royal country, old-fashioned dinner. The groom is a son of Mr. Riley Stewart, a prominent farmer, and is a splendidly educated, capable character, and a pleasant disposition. The bride is possessed of a sweet disposition which endears her to all.

TWAS EVER THUS.
How a Princess Called Down Another Woman 2,500 Years Ago.
From The Baltimore Sun.
Twenty-five hundred years ago a princess of the royal family of Assyria wrote a letter to a lady of the imperial court, in which the latter was haughtily rebuked for presuming to use the familiar title, "sister" in addressing the royal lady. The letter was written in the Assyrian language, and was published by the Johns Hopkins university. Dr. Christopher Johnson, who translated the letter, did not puzzle out the dignified terms in which one woman of those ancient days rebuked another.

The letter was not written with ink upon a sheet of tinted paper, as would be done by a fair dame of today, but was inscribed upon a tablet of baked clay, and the royal lady did not waste words to express her indignation at the presumptuousness of the letter. The tablet was written only a few years before the destruction of Nineveh and the overthrow of the Assyrian empire. The letter was written in the Assyrian language, and was published by the Johns Hopkins university. Dr. Christopher Johnson, who translated the letter, did not puzzle out the dignified terms in which one woman of those ancient days rebuked another.

The bride entered the church on the arm of the groom, and was attended by her sister, Miss Harding, and Miss Roberts. She wore an elegant afternoon suit of dark green cloth, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white lilies. The wedding of Miss Ida May Harding and Mr. Joseph Beardsley was solemnized yesterday at 6 o'clock at the Unitarian church.

A large party of friends were assembled in the church beautifully decorated with palms, tropical plants and white roses. Music added to the impressiveness of the ceremony and the occasion was a very happy one.

TRAMP HAD A RING
New Evidence Comes to Light in the McCullough Case.

TRIED TO SELL IT ON THE TRAIN.
Mr. Darden Is Perfectly Reliable. What the Citizens of Milner Have to Say.

Was the bloody tramp the murderer of Mrs. John McCullough?
There is no doubt but that this theory points towards the innocence of John McCullough, and that it has caused a wonderful reversion of public sentiment in his favor throughout the state.

The two citizens of Milner who saw the tramp board the southern Central train on the day of the killing at Forest station, only five miles from Riverdale, are perfectly reliable, and great confidence is placed in their story.

The article published in last Monday's Constitution to the effect that E. B. Darden, one of the gentlemen was not very highly respected in his community and that his story about the McCullough tramp was not believed seems to have been an unintentional error.

A communication from Milner, signed by twenty leading citizens of that town, states that Mr. Darden is perfectly reliable, and that the report to the contrary was entirely erroneous.

"Milner, Ga., July 6.—To The Atlanta Constitution: We, the undersigned citizens of Milner, Ga., beg to state that we have read the article in today's Constitution which is headed 'Tramp Had a Ring' and which is signed by E. B. Darden and Coleman Parham, in reference to the story of the bloody tramp who was seen by the citizens of Milner, Ga., on the day of the killing of Mrs. John McCullough at Forest station, only five miles from Riverdale, are perfectly reliable, and great confidence is placed in their story.

UNCLE SAM'S LOSS
Will Be $50,000

Short Peach Crop Will Cause a Large Loss of Revenue.
THE BRANDY BUSINESS LESS
Collector Trammell Talks About the Prospects in Georgia.

MANY NEW DISTILLERIES TO GO UP
The Distilling of Blackberries Into Brandy To Begin—What Trammell Says.

The Georgia peach crop for this season is so short that it will materially affect the income of the revenue department.

From a deficiency in the output of peach brandy alone the department will lose $20,000 this year. The peach crop has been estimated by those who are thoroughly familiar with it to be but 75 per cent of the average yield.

The apple crop is almost a complete failure and is even worse than the peach crop. It is estimated that the yield will be but one-fifth as large as it was last year. Collector Trammell gets some consolation out of the fact that the distillers have other sources to work upon this year than the apple and peach crops.

Up to last year brandy was made only out of apples, peaches and grapes. This year the law has been changed so as to allow the manufacture of brandy out of the other fruits of the state. It is a large industry in Florida.

Another source from which the collector expects to reap a revenue of considerable size is the distillation of grape wines into grape brandy. The federal authorities impose no tax upon the makers of grape wine and consequently there has been a great quantity of it distilled in this state. The supply has been far in excess of the demand and during recent years as much as 100,000 gallons of the overstock of this old wine in Georgia.

The demand for brandies is still greater than the supply and this year a great deal of this wine is being redistilled into grape brandy.

All the brandy distilled in the state has to pay a revenue tax and consequently the department expects to get a considerable revenue from this source.

The United States revenue department, with headquarters in this city, has a yearly income of $50,000 from its regular license, special and other taxes.

There has been an increase in the tax levied on spirits in the past two years and this will help make up the deficiency from a short peach crop. When all things are considered the revenue for 1896 will be almost if not quite as large as it was in 1895.

CORN BADLY DAMAGED.
ALMOST ENTIRELY SUBMERGED AROUND ATLANTA.

The heavy storm brought more than five inches of rain in two days and nights.

The heavy storm has passed on to the northward leaving cool, delightful weather in its stead. The rains which fell almost continuously for two days and nights amounted to more than five inches, which is an unprecedented rain fall for this time of the year.

Crops have been badly injured in the valleys, and corn in the vicinity of Atlanta has been almost entirely ruined by the heavy deluge.

In the valleys the corn is in many places almost entirely submerged and on the hillsides it has been almost washed away in many places.

The storm which hit this morning in Georgia has disappeared off the Atlantic coast, leaving the atmospheric pressure in this section in a normal condition with comparatively low temperature.

The movement of the storm since its first appearance near Pensacola Tuesday was northwesterly and has only effected the states of Florida, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi.

High winds and heavy rains accompanied its progress. The rain being continuous since the morning of the 7th till nearly noon yesterday.

MRS. GOULD'S GRATITUDE
HOW SHE WAS RESTORED TO HEALTH.

Condition Before and After the Birth of Her Child.

From every city, town and hamlet on this vast continent, come letters from suffering women; from those whose physicians have been unable to assist them, or from those whose confidence in Mrs. Pinkham's advice and the curative properties of her Compound is unshaken.

Every letter received from women is recorded, and hundreds of volumes of cases treated aid in furnishing practical information for the women of today.

No letters are published without the request of the writer. The strictest confidence is observed. The following letter represents thousands—

"I always enjoyed good health until six months before the birth of my babe. Then I was very weak; my back ached all the time. My physicians said I would be all right after the birth of the child, but I was not, although at that time I had the best of care. The pains in my back were almost unbearable. I had leucorrhoea in its worst form; menstruations were painful.

"Any work or care would entirely unnerve me. When my babe was 11 months old, friends persuaded me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I had taken one bottle I felt the effects. My back did not ache so badly, and I felt stronger. After taking four bottles I felt well. My ambition returned, menstruations were painless, leucorrhoea entirely cured, and I could take care of my babe and do my housework. I shall always recommend your Vegetable Compound for all women, especially for young mothers."—Mrs. H. L. Gould, Oregon, Wis.

If Mrs. Gould had been well before the birth of her child, subsequent suffering would have been avoided. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should always be taken before and after birth, in order that the system may withstand the shock.

We Sold Yesterday a Piano That Cost Us at the Factory $310 for $205.

This will give you an idea of how the Pianos are being sold. The instrument is one of the best known makes, and of course we fully guaranteed it. We will entertain any proposition made us for this stock—you make the price. We must sell our present stock before we move into 80 Whitehall street, as the Pianos to go into that place have been ordered.

The auction will be carried on by Steve Johnson, at 10 o'clock this morning. While we have one of the best musicians to play the pianos, any one is at liberty to bring who they may wish to try these instruments.

THE DUBLIN SPECIAL.
Dublin, Ga., July 8.—(Special).—Exciting scenes were witnessed here last Monday, during the municipal election. The race for mayor was between John H. Stubbins and ex-Mayor Stout Blackear was full of interest, and at times created intense excitement. Friends of both factions worked assiduously all day for the favorite candidate, until the close of the polls. Whiskey of all grades played an important part in the campaign, and the negro element were pretty "boozed."

At the conclusion of the count, and when it was announced that Captain Stubbins was the victor, shouts and huzzas rent the air.

A DIPLOMATIC JAP

Minister Hoshi Toru Sails for America

This Morning.

SOMETHING OF A SCHOLAR

He Studied Law in London and Afterwards Became Leader of the Liberal Party in Japan.

The new Japanese minister to the United States, Mr. Hoshi Toru, will leave for his post on the 31st of the present month. Mr. Hoshi—the name means "star"—has long been a prominent figure in the political arena of Japan, and though he was many years ago an official of rank, his conduct since then has been such as to lead people to expect official preferment for him now, or at any other time, says a writer in The Recorder.

Not that there is anything to be said against him as a gentleman, but he has bitterly opposed those in power, or, in other words, the representative statesmen of the Satsuma and Choshu clans, who, since the days of the restoration and the overthrow of the feudal regime—largely brought about by their loyal energy—have held a commanding position in the councils of the realm, and to this day control the cabinet. Mr. Hoshi Toru is a man of commanding presence, not tall, but broad-shouldered, with a position taken by the British ambassador, Mr. Hoshi Toru, though really not at fault, had to resign his post.

His rank in his mind, and his next move was to attack the government through the medium of the press. He started two journals at various times, each of which was finally suppressed by the authorities. The most famous was the Jiyu no Tomoshiki, or Liberal Lantern. In these papers Mr. Hoshi Toru gave free license to his pen, and wrote in the most uncompromising manner, proving a veritable thorn in the flesh to the cabinet ministers. The frequent suspensions and the final suppression of his journals were very costly. Mr. Hoshi completely dissipating his fortune in this manner. But when the imperial diet was convened, Mr. Hoshi was one of the men whose election was assured from the outset.

On taking his seat he distinguished himself by his decisive, searching speeches, his impetuosity under attack and his courteous bearing. It was a foregone conclusion that so prominent a politician would soon take a leading position in parliament. This promise was fulfilled two years ago by his election to the onerous post of president of the lower house—by no means a sinecure in Japan, for the lower house is notoriously turbulent.

For prickly heat, insect bites, chafing, sunburn, etc., nothing is so effective as Pond's Extract, diluted with a little water. Insist on having the genuine.

ASSESSOR EWING NOW.

Mr. Keith's Successor Was Sworn in by Mayor King Yesterday.

Mr. J. H. Ewing, the newly elected city tax assessor, was sworn in yesterday morning and he took up his duties at the city hall. He gave bond for a faithful discharge of his duties and was introduced to the clerks and officials of the assessors' office by Captain Moon, of Mayor King's office.

The oath of office was taken in Mayor King's office. That official administered the oath. He examined and approved Mr. Ewing's bond for $2,000. The bond was signed by Messrs. W. D. Smith, W. H. Hingham and W. M. Terry. Mr. Ewing succeeded Mr. Charles Keith, who filled the office ably for several years.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

THE STRIKERS WIN.

PLUMBERS SUCCEED IN GETTING A WAGE SCALE.

They Will Be Paid $3 Per Day for Nine Hours' Work—Strike Declared Off Yesterday.

The strike of the plumbers, steam and gas fitters has been settled. An agreement was ratified by the strikers and master plumbers yesterday and the men will go to work this morning.

By the terms of the agreement the strikers came out victorious. They will continue to work nine hours per day and will receive more wages than formerly. The agreement is effective until January 15, 1897.

The plumbers demanded a scale of wages about two weeks ago. They wanted $3 per day for plumbers and steam fitters and $2.50 for gas fitters. All men who have been employed as plumbers for two years will receive the scale demanded—that is, $3 per day.

All plumbers who have been working less than two years as such will receive $2 per day until they have worked two years. After then they will be paid $3 per day. Steam fitters will receive $3 per day as demanded.

The strikers held a meeting yesterday and unanimously ratified the action of their committee which had the matter in charge and which agreed upon the terms of settlement with the committee from the master plumbers. Resolutions were adopted thanking the Atlanta Federation of Trades, the Carpenters' Union and Mr. Wood, of the Cigarmakers' Union, for assistance rendered during the strike. The strikers made speeches and congratulated themselves on the victory. The strike of the third won by the plumbers in the last two or three years. They stood together firmly and determined to win.

THE BICYCLE CONTEST ENDED.

The Wheel To Be Given Today to the Winner—Great Interest Aroused.

The handsome bicycle offered by the Bloodworth Shoe Co. as a prize to the successful rider in the contest at the Atlanta among the boys and girls and their families. This "contest" originated by the above concern was a novel one, and excited quite a good deal of interest throughout Atlanta.

It was conducted in the following manner: Each person making purchase was entitled to one vote for each dollar purchase, and it might be cast for the girl or boy of their choice. Thus, the boys and girls, their friends, purchased footwear for themselves and assisted this enterprising firm in their efforts to establish the leading shoe business in the south, which they are fast doing by the most honest efforts and modern ways of doing business.

The number of votes received by the six leading contestants (these being numerous others not receiving so many) is as follows: Miss Willie Singer, 123; Miss Jessie Reid, 118; Miss Lena Orr, 115; Miss Katie Dunaway, 112; Miss Lulu B. Kirby, 107; Miss Linda Gordon, 104.

In presenting the wheel to Miss Singer, the Bloodworth Shoe Co. wishes her much pleasure in its use, and congratulates her in her number of friends, who by their efforts the practical side of their friendship.
